as women are welcome.*

SWU UW

SouthWest Unitarian Universalist Women

SWU UW Mission Statement:

SWU UW is a non-profit organization that supports an annual conference to foster women's spiritual growth and leadership development.

To implement our Mission, SWU UW:

- Connects the women of the District to each other;
- Develops women leaders through conference planning and implementation;
- Empowers women through team building
- Educates women on the status of social justice issues which impact women;
- Deepens the spiritual life of the women and maidens of the Southwest District of the Southern Region of the UUA. empowerment of women leaders.

SWU UW Values:

SWU UW promotes friendships and connections among UU women and celebrates our diversities and uniqueness.

The SWU UW Vision:

To connect, develop, empower, educate, and spiritually deepen UU women.

The SWU UW Board's Vision:

To be a voice for Unitarian Universalist Women in the Southwest District of the Southern Region of the UUA through our conference planning and empowerment of women leaders.

What we do:

We have convened annual SWU UW women's conferences since 1987.

- We invite well-known national and international keynote speakers and musicians.
- We work with a variety of congregations.
- We support teams of women volunteers who plan and produce well-organized events.
- We select wide-ranging workshop topics.
- We support high quality products from local and national vendors.
- We Generate Creative Energy!
- We hold conferences in late February or early March each year.
- They are affordable week-end events spread across the SWU UW District area.
- We offer scholarships.
- Planners customize events to their local community.
- SWU UW Conferences bring 150 plus!
